January 26 - February 2 — Christian Endeavor Week, marking the 88th birthday of the movement

Do It "This Day"!

"This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your ears." So does Jesus speak in His home town (Luke 4:21).

"Choose you this day whom ye will serve." The words are from God's message through Joshua (24:15).

This day—now. Youth may want to postpone speaking in public and other forms of leadership. "Give me more time to get ready!"

The student on a small allowance says he is ready to practice stewardship when his income rises—and then he might postpone this form of "giving himself" until promotion comes his way.

The church itself hesitates to take a stand "this day" on important timely issues. There are signs, however—and these encourage Christian Endeavor young people—that more of unity, more of evangelistic spirit, more concern for the poor and for others "held down" are becoming NOW-concerns in Christian witness and work.

"This day" do something that takes the sort of daring that Christian faith creates and sustains. Act now as you have dreamed you might act later!

LEADERS LEARN

Courses on "Operation—Local Union," "Eight Hats of the Executive," "Suggestions for Successful Speaking," "Christian Dramatics," and studies on "How to Secure and Use Statistics," "How to Choose and Use Music in Christian Endeavor," "How to Promote the Use of the Pledge," along with "Share and Learn" sessions were special features of the 1968 Executives' Program Council. Over eighty Christian Endeavor leaders from all parts of the United States and from Canada met December 5-8 in Columbus, Ohio.

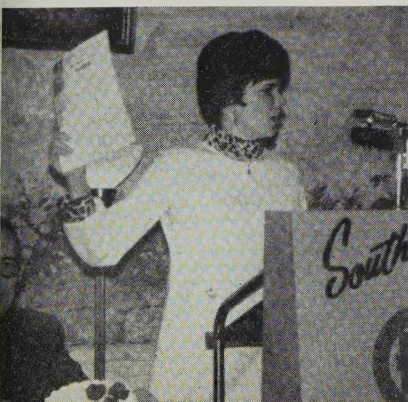

A highlight of the meetings was a fellowship banquet Friday evening with Bishop Clyde W. Meadows, World's Union president, as speaker. Banquet theme and decorations pointed to Portland, Maine, in anicipation of the 1969 Portland Pilgrimage.

The sessions opened Thursday morning with the keynote message by Elwood Dunn, International Society president. Meditations Friday and Saturday mornings were led by Rev. George L. Blackwell, secretary of Christian Education of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church. The Sunday morning closing worship and communion service was conducted by Mr. Dunn.

Following a get-acquainted dinner, the delegates enjoyed a visit to Christian Endeavor Headquarters Thursday night. A special memorial service was held for three active Endeavorers who died in 1968: Dr. Allan J. Blair, Dorothy E. Howes, and Dr. Daniel A. Poling. Members of the Franklin County Union were hosts at an informal reception which followed.

Throughout the program there were opportunities for the leaders to express ideas as well as at four special share and learn sessions on Saturday afternoon. These were led by Timothy J. Kribs of Oregon, a member of the Educational Committee; Gordon McMordie, general secretary of the Pennsylvania Union; Charles C. Meek of Texas, vice-president in charge of the Southwestern Region; and W. Valroy Redick, president of the Maryland Union.

Informative presentations were given to spark interest in various areas of Christian Endeavor work. The many items of literature and other supplies available through the Publishing Department were presented by Rev. Roger D. Vander Kolk, Michigan, a member of the Educational Committee. The Outdoor Poster Program was detailed by Rev. Kent D. Maxwell, president of the Indiana Union. Clyde Sherk, Ontario, president of the Canadian Union, gave information on the 1969 Mobilization. The Forward Advance Program was presented by Elwood Dunn. Mrs. Robert E. Howard, president of the Oregon Union, told delegates about Christian Endeavor Week.

A challenge to witness as part of the 1969 Christian Youth Witness Program was given by Rev. Elwood Kirschner, field secretary of the New Jersey Union. The Albert H. Diebold Awards total over $1,300 in cash, grants for the Portland Pilgrimage, award plaques, and certificates for the winning individuals, societies, and local unions. Deadline for entries is February 14.

ed Christian Endeavor's three publications—JUNIOR CE MEETINGS, YOUTH CE MEETINGS, and THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR WORLD. She told of plans for promoting the special February 1969 "Share the World" issue, designed to be given to those who do not subscribe.

One of the most popular presentations was the "Eight Hats of the Executive" given by Paul F. Hurley of Pennsylvania. Mr. Hurley's manuscript has been mimeographed for distribution. Rev. Walter M. Burkholder, general secretary of the Department of Christian Education of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, gave helpful information on "Christian Dramatics."

Thursday and Friday afternoons were spent in intensive preliminary work on the 1971 Junior and Youth Topics and the 1970 and 1971 Young Adult and Adult Topics and Summaries. The material prepared by the delegates will be helpful to the editors who will prepare final topics and annotations for these age levels.

A special opportunity for fellowship was the "Person to Person Party" Saturday evening coordinated by C. Gardener Henderson, president of the Virginia Union.

NEW COUNCIL leaders installed by President Dunn are (from left) Timothy Kribs, Ralph Robrahn, Louise Pulsifer, Allen Burwell, Walter Burkholder, and Gerald Hallman. Several were unable to be present.

Saturday evening also featured a Christian Endeavor meeting on the subject "David — A Man After God's Own Heart," under the direction of David Kumpe of Missouri, assisted by other youth delegates. The meeting closed with a candlelight consecration service.

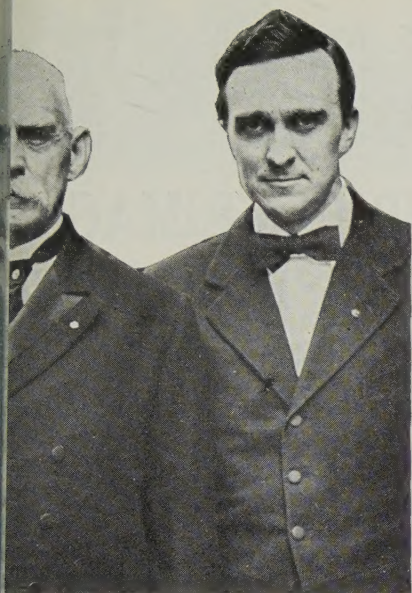

Chairman of the 1968 Council was Lavern Billig of Pennsylvania, vice president in charge of the Middle Atlantic Region. Rev. Ralph E. Robrahn of Michigan was the song leader with Lawrence L. Hanby of Texas and Rev. David G. Jackson of Indiana serving as pianists.

The Executives' Program Council meets annually. Included in its membership are denominational youth workers; presidents and employees in field, executive, and general secretaries of Christian Endeavor unions; International Society officers; and youth delegates appointed by the unions and denominations.

Timothy J. Kribs, a member of the Educational Committee from Gladstone, Oregon, succeeds Mr. Billig as Council chairman. Vice-chairmen are Allen Burwell of California

Poling Memorial Fund Continues to Grow

Special gifts in honor of Dr. Daniel A. Poling's birthday November 30 have helped to swell the Poling Memorial Fund, which is now almost 18% completed.

The goal of the Fund, which honors not only Dr. Poling but also his wife Lillian and their son Clark, is $83,000—$1,000 for each year of Dr. Poling's life. Dr. Poling's own bequest of $5,000 was used to begin the Fund.

The Fund is open for additional individual and group gifts of cash or pledges, as well as stocks, bonds, insurance policies, and bequests. Only the income of this permanent Fund will be used, and that is designated for the ongoing work of Christian Endeavor International in North America.

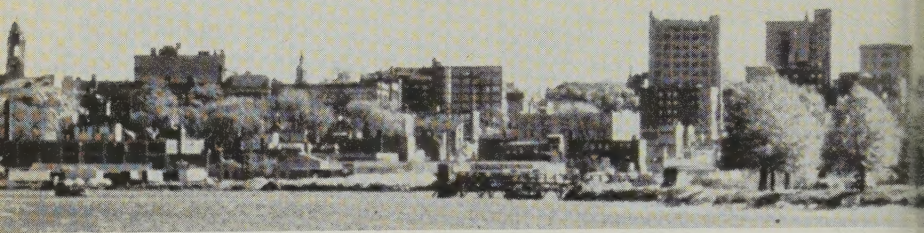

No Matter How You Figure . . . The Success of the 1969 Mobilization Depends on Y O U

The International Society of Christian Endeavor is counting on the Mobilization to raise the largest share of the income for its Christ-centered ministry to youth in 1969. The concentrated Mobilization period is January and February. Contributions are solicited from individuals and from groups — societies, churches, unions, alumni, etc.

The 1969 Budget calls for $35,000 to be raised by individual memberships, self-doubling, and Cost-For-A-Day gifts, with $7,500 to come from group gifts through the Christian Endeavor Roll Call. The remainder of the total budget of $112,270 is to be raised by other methods.

A successful 1969 Mobilization will bring enough membership and Roll Call contributions to Headquarters in Columbus, Ohio, by February 28 to enable the vital work of Christian Endeavor International to be carried forward for another year. Won't you give as God has prospered you? Remember — it all depends on YOU.

Tour Eastern Canada

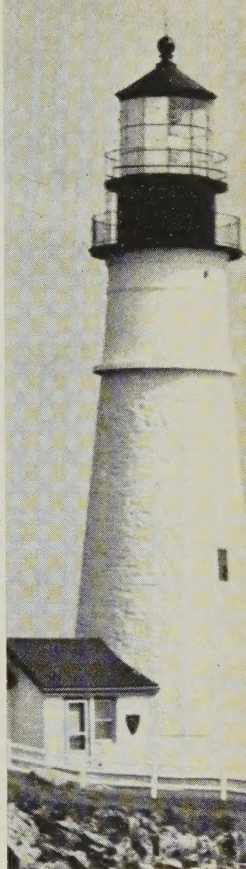

Join the Eastern Canadian Provinces and Portland Pilgrimage Tour July 3-20 and see New England and the Maritime Provinces.

This personally conducted motorcoach tour leaves New York City July 3 and travels through Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Maine enroute to Portland for the Pilgrimage July 4-6.

Following Pilgrimage activities the tour party motors to Bar Harbor, Maine. On July 7 the group crosses the Bay of Fundy to Nova Scotia to spend five days visiting Yarmouth, Halifax, and Cape Breton Island. Saturday morning, July 12, the party motors through New Brunswick to Carlton Sur Mer, Quebec. During the next week the party will stay at Perce, Riviere Madeleine, and Timouski as it travels through the Gaspé Peninsula. On to the city of Quebec and the famous Hotel Chateau Frontenac, then to Montreal overnight and Ottawa, the Canadian capital. Here the party will visit Aylmer, birthplace of Dr. Francis E. Clark. Sunday, July 20, the group departs for New York City where the tour ends in late afternoon.

The cost at present rates, for this tour of over 3,000 miles in 17 days, is $495. A $50 deposit will reserve a place.

For complete itinerary, write to Rev. Christian A. Pirre, tour director, 1221 E. Broad St., Columbus, Ohio 3216.

Canada 1970 - Once-in-a-Lifetime Opportunity

Christian Endeavorers in Canada are organizing for an all-out effort to host the 16th World's and 50th International Conventions to be held concurrently August 19-23 (Wednesday-Sunday), 1970, in Kitchener-Waterloo, Ontario.

This promises to be the biggest event in recent Christian Endeavor history, with thousands of delegates from all parts of the world. The Program Committee, headed by Frances M. Becker, has met several times and is seeking to secure outstanding world speakers and leaders. The local committee, under the leadership of C. J. Rempel and Rev. C. Keith Nicholson, is planning some unusual special events. Convention activities will center in the Kitchener Memorial Auditorium, seating 7,500, and the very modern University of Waterloo, where delegates will be housed.

JANUARY 26- FEBRUARY 2

TIME TO CELEBRATE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR'S 88th BIRTHDAY

More than one million members from primary to adult age in thousands of Christian Endeavor societies in North America will soon be taking part in varied activities in observance of Christian Endeavor Week.

Theme for this year's observance is "One Body in Christ," based on Romans 12:1-5 and Ephesians 4:1-6. Events will include union meetings, church services featuring youth participation, banquets, parties, radio and TV broadcasts, evangelistic efforts by young people, leadership workshops, and many other special projects.

A feature of the annual observance is the Outdoor Poster Program. Colorful Christian Endeavor posters with the message "Young People—Come to Church" will be displayed in cooperation with individual outdoor poster companies which are members of the Outdoor Advertising Association of America, Inc.

Dramatizations will tell of the organization of the first society February 2, 1881, in Williston Congregational Church, Portland, Maine, by Rev. Francis E. Clark and of the phenomenal spread of the movement until it embraced the whole world.

FEBRUARY 14—ANOTHER IMPORTANT DATE

Yes, that's Valentine's Day . . . but it is also the last day for entries to be mailed in Christian Endeavor's Christian Youth Witness Program. There is still time for individuals, societies, and local unions to complete Christian witness project and to prepare a report and get it on its way to Headquarters in Columbus, Ohio, by February 14.

A rush letter to Rev. Christian A. Tirre will bring you all the details. Hurry . . . don't miss this opportunity to share with others what you are doing to witness for Christ in your community.

Christian Effectiveness (Salt and Light)

A New Year's Message from William J. Sharpe
Area II General Secretary, World's Union

At first sight it would seem these two elements have little in common. One is tangible to the touch, the other is only tangible to the sight. Yet they both have a symbolism and an effect which are vital to our Christian influence.

Salt was of great importance to the Hebrews. In addition to its use in preparation and preservation of food it was used in religious ceremonies, especially for the cleansing of the ritual sacrifice to be laid upon the altar. Salt gives zest to life and makes it palatable. It should also give it permanence, to guard against corruption.

Light was always equated in the minds of the Jewish people with the presence of God. As the priests carried the lamps into the temple it symbolized the presence of God who gives light to the world. That light in the physical sense sustains vegetation and gives life. In the spiritual sense it brings illumination to men's minds and dispels ignorance.

The Jews made the mistake of assuming that the light they had received was to be confined to Israel. They ignored the command, "to be a light to lighten the Gentiles." It was necessary therefore for Christ to come to give a new concept of God's unrestricted light of which He was the chosen vessel.

In spite of all the progress we have made, in spite of our better facilities for education, we live in an era of real ignorance in the things of the Spirit. Whilst prices of material possessions have risen to unthought of heights, spiritual values have reached almost zero.

This is a day of big business, of high finance, of record breaking output in trade and commerce; but it is becoming more and more significant that there is also a rising graph of corruption and lack of conscientiousness.

Christ's answer to intrigue and corruption in His own day was to train a small band of men and women to be salt and light in the middle of a corrupt and superstitious community. They were only a small handful, but even a tiny bit of salt will stave off corruption and give zest to life, making it a palatable and joyful experience. They didn't shine very bright, but even a flickering candle will prevent a person from stumbling in the dark.

"Ye are the salt—the light," said Jesus. We have to recognize that we of ourselves are not these elements. Ours is a borrowed influence, a borrowed light, or as Paul puts it, "We are as bright mirrors reflecting the glory of God." We do not of ourselves possess that quality which counters corruption, but we are the earthen vessels capable of carrying these treasures.

This means of course that there must be a nearness to the source, a right relationship to Him whose life, death, and rising again from the dead were for the saving health of all nations. How we need to pray constantly,

"Refining fire go through my heart, illuminate my soul,
Scatter thy life in every part and sanctify the whole."

Poling Alumni Banquet

The annual banquet of the Poling Alumni Foundation No. 1 of Cleveland, Ohio, is scheduled for February 22 at the City Mission. Speaker will be Rev. Christian A. Tirre of the International Society Staff.

U.S. Congress on Evangelism

An urgent call for eight and a half months of concentrated prayer has been issued in behalf of the United States Congress on Evangelism by its two key men. Evangelist Billy Graham, honorary chairman, and Dr. Oswald C. J. Hoffman, chairman of the 52-man National Committee, joined in the call to American churches and Christians to undergird the September 8-13 Congress with intercession. It will be held in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and will bring together 8,000 delegates representing more than 100 denominations. They will be one-third lay men and women, one-third parish pastors, and one-third evangelists, educators, theological students, executives, etc.

The Call for Prayer includes these paragraphs:

"The urgency and need for a mighty moving of the Spirit of God in our nation and across the world is impressed upon us in every newscast. Our daily papers compel us to realize that we are at a crossroad, and that our choice is either Christ or chaos.

"What assistance can be given to the American home? How can the local church be mobilized to reach the community for Christ? What is the Scriptural answer to the cultural, social, and moral upheaval of our day? How can the needy individual be convinced that Jesus Christ is the answer? We must have answers in our generation.

"Church leaders from all across America are urgently requesting that you pray during these months ahead with an overwhelming faith that there shall be a spiritual awakening in our time."

FORWARD ADVANCE Advances

At the Executives' Program Council, which met in December at Columbus, the Forward Advance Program took a giant step forward. Preliminary announcements and explanations have been made; however, in December the new promotional and descriptive folder was distributed for the first time.

The folder titled "What Is Forward Advance?" was written by the Forward Advance Committee. The format of the folder was done by the educational secretary, Rev. Christian A. Tirre. It is bright red and white and suggests moving forward with arrowlike precision and speed. Any Christian Endeavor group will be proud to distribute the new piece.

The Forward Advance Program issues a clarion call to move forward in the areas that have always been the strong elements in Christian Endeavor. It offers specific goals for the individual, the society, the local union, and the state or provincial union. Goals are also suggested for the International Society of Christian Endeavor.

In addition, proper recognition will be given to all who achieve the goals they choose.

The areas of emphasis are Evangelism, Education, Expression, and Enlistment.

Evangelism — because Christian Endeavorers of every age have taken the Great Commission seriously. They have ever believed that our Lord was talking to them. Forward Advance would see every member, society, and union actively engaged in some appropriate evangelistic effort.

Education — because training is essential to success. An entire series of Christian Endeavor materials is entitled "How To . . ." Conferences, dialogues, conventions, classes, etc., are to be promoted to improve educational procedure.

Expression — because this movement has always been a "learn by doing" advocate. Amos R. Wells long ago expressed this concept with his dictum, "The way to learn to speak in public is to speak in public."

Enlistment — because more youth and adult leaders are needed. Some can give hours, some days, some weeks to win and train this generation of youth.

Enrollment is simple. Send a card or letter to:

Miss Martha C. Walke
Forward Advance Recorder
2761 Indianola Ave.
Columbus, Ohio 43202

She will happily send you full information. The folder is available in quantities for further promotion.

Let Forward Advance help you and your society and union take a giant step forward in 1969.
